Emma BAHAMA

Emma Bahama is a professional contemporary artist working in painting, sculpture, printmaking and jewellery. Ever evolving, her work is inspired by light, shadow, mood. She creates nature studies, land and sea scapes in textural layers through her intuitive painting process, holding above all the pursuit of beauty.

Nomadic by nature Emma is currently based in Daylesford Victoria but holds a strong connection to the ocean the inspiration it provides to her studio in the Australian bush.

Emma's work has been featured in many publications including Vogue Australia, Grazia and The Age.
