Maureen KIRSCH

Maureen Kirsch has been a Victorian pastel artist for over 4 decades, and in recent years she has successfully sold her predominantly Mornington Peninsula themed works with great success! She is a retired primary school teacher and mother of four sons and three grandsons. A selection from her portfolio is now being released in greeting cards and postcards.

Maureen was a featured artist at the 2019 Annual Blairgowrie Yacht Squadron Easter Art Show. She has also exhibited at Mornington Art Show, Sorrento Rotary Art Show, Flinders Art Show, Bayside Art Show, Camberwell Art Show, Mount View Art Show, Mount Waverley Art Show, Warrandyte Art Show and Box Hill Art Show.

Maureen says:

“After graduating as a teacher I specialized in teaching art, while exploring painting in various different mediums: watercolour, oils and pastels. Since retiring, I have continued my love of pastel painting, inspired by the beauty of the Mornington Peninsula, where I spent many family holidays on the beach in Blairgowrie and sailed with my father, as a member of the yacht club.

Each of my paintings represents a moment in time, inspired by my own personal life experiences: be it walking around the edge of Daylesford Lake with a friend or enjoying the beauty of the Lavender Farm, or chatting with an “old timer” panning for gold in the river near Warrandyte.”
