

The Convent
Daylesford

Kerry FLETCHER

Kerry Fletcher was born in Ballarat in 1958. She studied painting at Ballarat University College and completed post graduate studies in 1991. Since graduating, Kerry has exhibited across the Western District, in Ballarat, Adelaide and Melbourne.

Inspired by the landscapes since moving to the bush in 2008, her work has slowly evolved through three home changes to include the farmlands of Victoria's Western District, the beautiful Grampians area around Dunkeld and Hamilton townships. She currently resides beside the Yarrowee Creek, in Black Hill.