Rebeka WALKER

Rebeka 'Beck' Walker is a photographer with a passion for the Daylesford region. Her love for the local area began back in the early 1970's when her artist parents purchased an historic Swiss Italian property in Eganstown. After studying Writing and Literature at Deakin University Rebeka moved from Melbourne to Daylesford with her own family of seven in 2004. It was here that she picked up a camera and renewed an interest in photography. Rebeka's photographs have appeared in many publications, she produces an annual calendar & her work has been included in several exhibitions.

"My photography is often spontaneous, sometimes adventurous. Heading off down a dirt track on a winters morning to capture the unknown is my idea of heaven. I love to explore & am endlessly captivated by the huge variety in the area I live in - from the beautiful bush and creeks to the sprawling hills & farms. Favourite spots are Wombat Hill, Lake Daylesford, Jubilee Lake & Hepburn Springs and the incredible outlying countryside between Daylesford & Ballarat.

Every day is different when you live in the country which makes life, and my photography, both challenging and interesting. My happiest moments are when I'm capturing the beauty that surrounds me, I hope this is reflected in my work".
