

Convent Ghost Tours

The Convent, perched atop of Wombat Hill, is Daylesford's most iconic building. It is also home to some of Daylesford's oldest history.

First the private residence for the gold warden James Daly, then home to some of Daylesford's infamous gentry, and then home to the Presentation Nuns for almost 90 years!.

More than 160 years of history seep through the walls of this magnificent 19th century mansion. Walk with us as we explore The Convent by night and hear the tales of a bygone era ...and what tales it has to tell! Tread in the paths of the Nuns who once lived here, some of whom still remain behind overseeing their home. As the mist rolls over The Convent, we begin our lamp lit journey into the world of the unknown, of those who are still earthbound.
