“Painting Hydrangeas”

Immerse yourself in art & beauty at this wonderful 1-day workshop with Janet Knight.

The Convent Daylesford are excited to announce the upcoming Art Workshop with currently exhibiting professional artist Janet Knight.

If you have always wanted to get into painting or improve your painting skills, this 1-day workshop will give you the essential skills and painting confidence to paint a beautiful painting that you will be proud to hang in your home.

Janet Knight is an accomplished, award winning artist in a diverse range of mediums including oils, watercolours, pastels & acrylics.

Janet is passionate about her work and regularly exhibits her work. She is also a highly sought after tutor, leading overseas painting trips & conducting many on-line courses.

Janet’s 1-day art workshop “Painting Hydrangeas” this August will be a hit!

Don't miss this opportunity to create something wonderful.

In this delightful 1-day oil painting workshop you will discover the joy of painting hydrangeas on canvas using a photographic reference.

Janet will guide you through fundamental painting skills of using oils, techniques, including colour mixing, brush handling and creating different textures.

Participants will enjoy the step by step approach, building skills and gaining confidence as the day progresses.

By the end of the workshop you'll have your own beautiful oil painting to take home.

No prior painting experience is necessary - just come with an open mind and a willingness to learn.

The workshop will be held in the light filled St Lawrence Room where you can be inspired by the nature just by looking outside!

With only 10 attendees per day, there will be lots of one-on-one time with Janet, enabling you to finish your piece before leaving.
