Vicki SOAR

Vicki Soar is a registered art psychotherapist in England and Australia. Vicki has studied at Oxford Brookes University and the University of Derby to develop this career.

Her work is a blend of therapeutic interventions, portraiture, and spiritual symbolism. Vicki is inspired by the wabi-sabi movement, by combining natural materials and diverse drawing techniques to explore the therapeutic potential of art.

Vicki has exhibited and created murals in London, Australia, New Zealand and completed an artist residency in Cairns.

The belief most visible in her work is that creativity can connect us back to ourselves, each other, and something greater in our search for meaning and purpose.

“In creating this exhibition, my goal was to capture a feeling of being connected to something greater than ourselves. Through portraiture and mixed media, I have explored the transient journey towards healing and spiritual wholeness. This exhibition is a reflection of my belief that art has a transformative power to connect us back to ourselves and each other in our individual searches for meaning and purpose.”
